

u^b
UNIVERSITÄT
BERN

The Institute of Forensic Medicine provides the forensic medicine services for the city and canton of Bern as well as for other river basins in addition to teaching and research. For the research department of Forensic Psychiatry we are looking for a

Post Doc

(Social-, Applied-, Interdisciplinary Science: Psychology, Sociology, Criminology, Epidemiology) 80-100%

We offer

- A dynamic, inspiring and interdisciplinary research team (e.g. neurobiology, psychology & psychiatry) in a newly established professorship for forensic psychiatry (Prof. Dr. M. Liebrenz)
- a challenging job with the freedom to contribute to the development of innovative quantitative, qualitative and mixed-method studies
- a vibrant region with a high quality of life and a wide cultural offering
- entry by January 1st 2019 (or by appointment

Your skills and qualifications

- Completed Ph.D.
- Previous research experience and a proven track record in research (academic publishing)
- Interest in financially motivated nonviolent crime and/or the concept of psychopathy (Babiak/Hare)
- Creative, proactive, flexible with excellent German and very good English language skills
- STATA, SPSS, NVivo or comparable software

Your duties/responsibilities include

- Contribution to planning of studies (incl. ethical approval), data management and field work
- Data analysis and publication
- Acquisition of funding

Are you interested?

For more information please email Karin.Balmer@fpd.unibe.ch

How to apply

Please send your detailed application until 15th of December electronically to the address above.

Universität Bern, Institut für Rechtsmedizin, Forensisch Psychiatrischer Dienst, Falkenplatz 16 – 18, CH-3012 Bern, www.irm.unibe.ch.